

Please block Sinclair Broadcasting efforts to pre-empt regularly aired broadcasting to show an unflattering airing of Stolen Hour about John Kerry two weeks prior to the election.

Is it not illegal for a broadcasting to show this type of show without balance--especially if this airing can reach up to 25% of the viewers in this country.

Please FCC block this attempt of stealing the airwaves to favor the presidential election.

Connie Foulk